VINOPOLIS

Introduction

With a choice of seven distinct yet equally stunning event spaces, Vinopolis merges Victorian splendour with 21st century facilities, offering state of the art lighting and AV solutions.

Situated between London Bridge and Tate Modern, neighbouring Borough Market, Vinopolis is within easy reach of both the City and the West End via the Northern and Jubilee lines, with Westminster and Pimlico only a 10 minute boat ride away.

Vinopolis works with an in-house caterer and AV team and benefits from permanent lighting installations, all of which reduce set up time and enable flawless events as our suppliers understand our venue.

At Vinopolis we combine our distinctive venue with a seamless approach to event management, innovative food and drink, faultless presentation and impeccable service, delivering truly memorable events.

“Understanding our clients objectives is vital at Vinopolis, in order that we can meet their requirements and more importantly exceed expectations.”

Rupert Ellwood
Managing Director of Vinopolis

Versatile spaces,
Victorian splendour

The Great Halls

With its beautifully restored Victorian arches, original exposed brickwork, high vaulted ceilings and oak wood flooring, the splendour of the Great Halls is immediately apparent.

One of the City's most sought after event spaces, the Great Halls can accommodate up to 750 guests. With its own private entrance offering a foyer and a professionally managed cloakroom, the Great Halls is a diverse and versatile space. The arches lend themselves particularly well to tiered events that involve both a dinner and reception, utilising the natural partition between the dining and entertainment areas, allowing ease of set up and flexibility.

Conference/ theatre	250

A further benefit of the Great Halls is that they are located at street level with an entrance that opens directly onto Stoney Street allowing ease of accessibility and delivery of large production items.

Vaulted opulence

Mezzanine & Academia

The Mezzanine blends aspects of both contemporary and traditional architecture with original brickwork, and an impressive wood beam ceiling complete with sky lights which provides an abundance of natural daylight.

The room can accommodate up to 350 guests for lunches or dinners, 400 for conferences and up to 450 for receptions. The spacious foyer overlooks the Vinopolis Wine Tour and is ideal for break out sessions and small exhibitions.

Academia embodies the unique architectural qualities of the Great Halls on a smaller scale. It is a versatile space that is suitable for meetings and dinners for up to 100 guests.

With windows overlooking the Great Halls and close proximity to the Mezzanine, Academia can be utilised as a catering area, entertainment area, VIP lounge or exhibitor space to complement events taking place in both spaces. With a licence to host both civil ceremonies and civil partnerships, Academia is a popular space for intimate ceremonies.

Vibrant design

The Gallery

The Gallery is a fresh, contemporary space with white washed walls and high ceilings. With the option to add partitions, the space is ideal for product launches and exhibitions and provides a flexible blank canvas for your event.

The Gallery is also well suited to seated dinners of up to 200 guests or a conference for up to 150 delegates. Our in-house lighting system can create atmosphere and add drama to your event.

Visibly modern

The Bombay Sapphire Blue Room & The Odyssey Rooms

The Bombay Sapphire Blue Room offers a stylish and glamorous setting for a cocktail mixology team building experience for up to 30 guests or alternatively as an exclusive reception or cocktail party for up to 80 guests.

This space can be combined with the Odyssey Rooms to accommodate up to 200 guests. Situated within a themed region of the Vinopolis Wine Tour, the Odyssey Rooms provide a spectacular setting to challenge the senses, featuring wine, whisky and champagne. The rooms are available for both daytime and evening events on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. They provide a distinct and versatile setting for business breakfasts, conference break-out areas, team building events, wine tastings and dinners for up to 80 guests or receptions for up to 350 guests.

Vivacious settings

The Vineyard, Malbec & Merlot

The Vineyard is the ideal space for hosting small conferences and meetings. In keeping with the high-arch, exposed brick style of Vinopolis, the Vineyard offers natural daylight, recordable digital television, DVD, wireless internet access and full AV facilities.

The space works particularly well for theatre style presentations of up to 50 guests or boardroom style meetings for up to 30 guests.

Testimonials

“Vinopolis was an ideal place to hold our after show party. The attentive staff, tasty canapés and amazing surroundings provided the perfect backdrop for our VIP party.” The Old Vic

“Without a doubt, The Great Halls offer a unique space with a guaranteed wow factor. One can create truly atmospheric, bespoke events with full use of the in-house production and catering facilities, plus happy and experienced staff will find solutions for all your event requirements. It's not a question of 'if I return' to Vinopolis, it's a question of 'when'” Magic 105.4

“Our dinner was an important campaigning event with over 200 senior business executives attending and Vinopolis provided a stunning venue and an engaging atmosphere. The staff were always there for support and were professional at all times.” Business in the Community

Vinopolis is committed to leading the events industry, in minimising the impact of its activities on the environment. Through Carbon Footprint, we have developed an online events carbon emissions calculator, so our clients can calculate and offset the CO2 generated by their event. Once the emissions have been offset, our clients will be given an option to gain the 'Carbon Footprint Approved Event' branding to help communicate their commitment to the environment.
